Dr Matt Lawler is the principal dentist and clinical director at Peel House Dental care, a fully private practice providing advanced restorative and implant care, and holds several postgraduate teaching roles. He graduated from the university of Liverpool in 1995 and later developed his interest in restorative and rehabilitative dentistry. He has studied and practised extensively in dental implants, advanced surgical procedures and advanced restorative dentistry, and completed a masters' degree in endodontology in 2016.

Matt is a senior mentor and lecturer on the MSc Dental Implantology programme at ICE (Implant Centre of Excellence) in Salford Quays and is the clinical adviser for a new MSc programme in advanced restorative dentistry due to launch there in 2022. Here he also operates a niche clinic treating complex cases including revision of failed implant dentistry and other dental implant complications. He is a key opinion leader for Megagen and an advocate of Megagen implants.

Matt continues to pursue his passion for teaching, and in addition to his postgraduate commitments on the dental implantology programme, offers one-to-one clinical mentoring to colleagues developing their implant dentistry skills. Matt is married with three children and enjoys cooking, playing and watching cricket, and is a lifelong fan of Liverpool football club.
